

Let My Heart Be a Chapel

Words: Mosie Lister

Music: Mosie Lister

1. There are no stained-glass win-dows in the tem-ple of my heart;
2. There are no state - ly an-thems by a choir of great re-nown.

No chim - ing bells re - mind me when to pray.
My on - ly song is Christ, who died for me;

But there the Sav-ior meets me, and from all the world a - part,
And while an-gels bow and wor-ship, my heart will swell the sound.

We walk to - geth - er hand in hand each day.
I'll sing His praise through - out e - ter - ni - ty.

Let My Heart Be a Chapel

Chorus

Let my heart be a chap-el for the Lord;

Let His name there for - ev - er be a - dored.

Let it be a place of prayer; May He al-ways meet me there.

Let my heart be a chap - el for the Lord.
